

Willoughby Hills Fire Station Addition and Renovation

Location: Willoughby Hills, Ohio
Budget: $1,500,000
Completion: 2003

Client: City of Willoughby Hills
35405 Chardon Road
Willoughby Hills, Ohio 44094

Services: Architectural Mechanical
Electrical
Civil/Site Engineering
Landscaping
Construction Administration and Inspection

CT design services were conceptual planning, and contract documents for a five bay equipment addition to the existing facility. Original equipment bays were converted into dormitory, office and locker room spaces and the remaining areas were upgraded. The building materials and design is contextual with the Western Reserve style Fire Station building and the City Hall building.